The Carly Stowell Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization whose mission is to provide enhanced education in athletic and music performance to area youth who show a passion for learning and commitment to excel.

We provide individualized instruction and group activities that include teams and ensembles, develop potential and leadership, teach responsibility, and foster creativity and expression.

An eligible applicant is an individual who currently resides in the state of Washington and requires assistance to participate fully in an athletic or music program provided by the Carly Stowell Foundation, their school or the community. Assistance may be used for team fees, training fees, camp fees, music classes, music lessons, and instrument rental. Assistance for other purposes and the final determination of eligibility are at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of the Carly Stowell Foundation.

Applications can be submitted on behalf of an eligible person by a legal guardian.

Disclosure Regarding Financial Assistance

- Awards of financial assistance granted by the Foundation will be dispersed on a case-by-case basis. Any grant of financial assistance is not an agreement by the Foundation to provide the applicant with financial assistance for any period of time or in an amount other than that specified by the Foundation in its sole and absolute discretion at the time of the grant. Once the grant is approved the Foundation will make payment in a single installment.
- The amount of the grant shall be determined at the sole discretion of the Foundation Board of Directors based, in part upon the recommendation of a three member screening panel. The satisfaction of minimum eligibility standards does not guarantee grant approval for financial assistance. The Carly Stowell Foundation does not discriminate based on race, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, or political affiliation.
- The Foundation reserves the right to condition any award or grant and at any time to modify the amount in terms of any financial assistance awarded or to terminate such financial assistance upon a change of either the grantee's or the Foundation's circumstances or the discovery of new information relevant to such financial assistance or this application.
- The undersigned hereby certifies that he/she has answered the foregoing questions to the best of his or her ability, and that the information provided by the undersigned is true, complete and and correct. The undersigned understands that any false or misleading information will disqualify the Applicant from receiving any financial assistance from the Foundation. In the event that a grant has been made prior to the discovery of any such false or misleading information, the Foundation reserves the right to recover from the undersigned the funds previously granted and paid.

5. The Carly Stowell Foundation believes that ownership and pride are best developed when recipients of financial assistance contribute to the cost of their involvement. Thus, all eligible recipients will be asked to either pay a portion of their participation fee, or volunteer their time with the Foundation in an agreed upon manner.

6. Information submitted or received in connection with this application will be disclosed to and used by the Foundation and its Board of Directors and staff in evaluating the application, and will be held confidential unless otherwise required by law. In the event the application is approved, however, the Foundation reserves the right and the undersigned agrees that the Foundation (without disclosing the recipient's name or address) shall have the right to release information publicizing the grant and explaining the basis upon which the grant was made.

To be completed by the student applicant:

“Carly Stowell was a gifted athlete and musician. What set her apart was her ability to recognize that dreams, without drive, hard work and determination simply remain only dreams. Success and ability are wasted on those who forget who they are and where they came from. “ Describe for us your dreams, your commitment to achieving them and the role you see the Foundation playing in assisting your pursuit..
